D	D	Willingness to Pay for a Grid Connection
		Before D1: If (C10 eq 1 or C11 eq 1) then skip to E1
		The next questions are about willingness to pay for a grid connection. There are several steps of getting connected to the grid, each with their own cost: 1. To use electricity you first need a wire from the nearest pole to a meter in your house. That is the connection. 2. Within your house you need wires that connect appliances to the meter. This is the wiring. 3. Finally, to keep using electricity you must pay for the electricity that you use, or it will be turned off. This is the cost of monthly use. I would now like to ask you questions ONLY about the first cost of connecting – getting a wire from the electricity poles to a meter in your house.
D	1	Would you be able to pay $ (CF) upfront for an electricity connection?		For each household, CAPI will randomly assign one of the following amounts in the placeholder $ (CF): 50% of the connection fee in local currency or 100%. Same amount in D1 and D2.	Yes...1 → Skip to E1 No...2
D	2	Would you be able to pay $ (CF) for an electricity connection, if you were given 12 months to make the payment?
